Ann Franklin, City Secretary

Bastrop Public Library Meeting Minutes

January 6, 2020

Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by President Mary Jo Jenkins.

Members present were

Mary Jo Jenkins, Barbara Clemons, Jennifer Leisure, Jamie McDonald, Lesa Neese, Mayor Connie Schroeder, Library Director Becca Sexton.

Citizen Comments:

There were none.

Announcements:

The library staff will begin using Tuesday mornings once a quarter for a time of planning and staff development.

Programming numbers were high for the month of December. The coverage by the Bastrop Advertiser highlighting the varied activities throughout December is greatly appreciated. Large numbers of patrons took advantage of reading, crafting, the multiple events of the annual library open house as well as the Christmas parade this month.

Police Chief, James Altgelt, has announced his retirement. Library Director, Becca Sexton, will now join a team comprised of leaders from the police, fire and public works department who all will directly report to the city manager.

January marks the beginning of the implementation of fines and the new fees for county residents. The transition has been smooth thus far.

The library has received a $10,000 estate donation.

After the eRate bidding process, the Library will remain with its current internet service provider.

Staff Report:

The Bastrop staff, along with the board, wish to offer their condolences to the family of Angie Perez, who served on the staff as custodian, on her passing.

The library is adding an additional eBook provider, Simply E. The platform is free through the State Library, which will provide all collection development services.

The Friends of the Bastrop Library have four new members. Memorials in the amount of $350.00 honoring Ann Beck and her work with the library has been received.

Material use statistics will continue to see variated numbers from those reported in the past as systems are updated to reflect a more accurate count. These same changes in numbers will also be evident in "in-house" statistics which will see a drop as the method of checking in books multiple times for each individual book checked out will cease and books will efficiently be checked in only once.

The recent estate $10,000 donation will be reflected in the Library Board Fund.

Consent Agenda:

The December minutes were approved as written.

Items for Individual Consideration and Discussion:

The open house was a success with 1400 in attendance for that one day event--the library normally welcomes 1800 weekly. The appearance of Mike and Kim Hewitt as Santa and Mrs. Claus was much appreciated and enjoyed. Teamwork among city departments plays a helpful role in helping to assure success for events; Bastrop's Mainstreet Director helped to make the gingerbread man booked through them to be an added delight to the open house festivities. All performers, musicians and volunteers are greatly appreciated.

The staff is already reviewing and making adjustments to improve enjoyment for next year's annual event. Gingerbread houses will be scheduled in waves and musicians are being sought out.

Updates:

There will be no collective embargo among libraries on McMillian Publishing concerning their implemented policies regarding eBooks.

Structural and streamlined city ordinances regarding Boards and Commissions may be referred to in the January packet.

A request was presented by President Mary Jo Jenkins to add and discuss current and future key distribution policies for the library to those other than library and city employees.

The meeting adjourned.

The Library staff is working to confirm who has badge access or key access to the Library. They are updating the key management system and implementing a stricter process of documenting who is given or loaned a Library key.

Throughout the month, Library staff attended various community events including a retirement party for City custodian Josie Castellanos; an Open House for the newly renovated and expanded YMCA; and the groundbreaking for the Main Street Rehabilitation Project.

Ms. Sexton attended regular monthly meetings of the Library Board, Friends of the Library, and Bastrop County COAD, and weekly meetings of Library staff and the City Manager's Cabinet.

All staff are enrolled in the Texas Library Association A to Z webinar series thanks to support from the Friends of the Library. Topics so far have included: Critical Aspects of Communication; Dealing with Difficult Situations; Critical Roles for Library Support Staff; Supervising, Managing, and Leading for Library Specialists; and Children's and Youth Services.

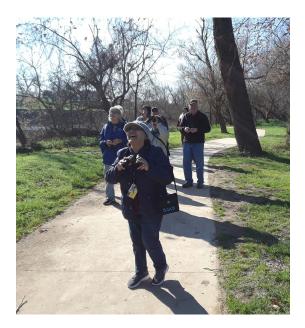

Other professional development staff have participated in this month include webinars on marketing; rural libraries and their role in the community; collection development; and managing volunteers. Library Associate for Youth Services Carmen Serna also attended a Central Texas Library System workshop on the Summer Reading Program at Round Rock Public Library.

2. Programs

We kicked off February with a great program in partnership with the Bastrop Juneteenth Committee, a Black History Month Youth Forum. 32 people came to enjoy music, a dance performance, and a panel discussion involving six local high school students and moderated by Council Member Dock Jackson.

Birding 101, presented in partnership with the Bastrop County Audubon Society was a huge success! An average of 36 people attended each session and we received several wonderful comments on Facebook, via email, and through the post-program surveys.

It was a great month for teen programming in and out of the library! Young Adult Librarian Bethany Dietrich and seven teens from the Youth Volunteer Club made cat toys for Bastrop County Animal Control and the teen Dungeons & Dragons program continues to draw an average of ten people a week. Ms. Dietrich also took her passion for working with teens out into the community to participate in the Advocacy Jam at Colorado River Collegiate Academy and the Bastrop High School Gay-Straight Alliance Book Club.

Six people came to discuss Census by Jesse Ball at the second meeting of the Director's Book Club.

Ms. Pierson and Ms. Serna participated in literacy events at Main Street and Lost Pines Head Start programs on February 18.

Though not a Library program, we were happy to host the Bastrop Police Department and members of the public for Coffee with the Chiefs on Tuesday, February 25.

Other program attendance in February:

Babies & Books: 37 Storytime: 268 Lego Club: 31 Maker Buffet: 7 Tween I Spy Challenge: 5 Teen Thursdays: 21 Crafters Anonymous: 7 Legal Aide: 17

3. Noteworthy Items

Two staff celebrated anniversaries with the City in February: Ashley Guerrero (six years) and Terry Carwell (one year).

Ms. Sexton is working on the Texas State Library and Archives Commission Annual Report. This 20-page annual report details library expenditures, revenue, usage, staffing, and more and is a condition of the Library's accreditation. Accreditation is required to participate in statewide programs like the TexShare card and database programs and interlibrary loan and to apply for TSLAC grants. The deadline is the end of April.

Ms. Sexton is working with supervisors, staff, and Human Resources to update job descriptions. Ms. Guerrero and Library Associate Catherine Lombardo updated the expectations for the part-time Library Clerk/VOE student workers (see attached).

As a result of implementing the non-resident fee, there have been some procedural changes in circulation. Patrons must now visit the circulation desk in person to renew their accounts, rather than calling in. Also, refunds will be issued for non-resident cards only on the day the account was created. No refunds will be issued after that date.

Ms. Sexton is leading the City-area task force for the Bastrop County Complete Count Committee. Efforts include coordinating with City colleagues from Media & Communications, the Main Street Program, and Utility Billing to get the word out and bringing laptops and hotspots to events for people to complete the Census.

Ms. Dietrich updated the patron purchase request form to include ebooks.

The Library will be closed the following dates in 2020:
Friday, April 10—Saturday, April 11: Easter weekend
Monday, May 25: Memorial Day
Friday, July 3—Saturday, July 4
Saturday, July 25: Summer Reading Program Finale Party, reduced hours

February 16 Facebook post by Kerry Fossler raving about Birding 101: "...At the end of the 4 week course, we were asked to complete a brief survey. I stuck to the format and answered the birding questions, but here's what I really wanted to say about the humans involved - "THANK YOU for going above and beyond the birdcall of duty to thoughtfully prepare and present the Birding 101 to a class that was 4x the size you dreamt would come. It was 4x beyond expectation. It was artfully and heart-fully carried out. - Elgin
- Georgetown
- New Braunfels
- Pflugerville
- Round Rock
- San Marcos
- Smithville
- Taylor
